Only 4 Days Left to Enjoy Winter WonderFest at Navy Pier presented by Bank of America!

Beat the cold in Chicago’s favorite indoor festival and enjoy a special visit from Shedd Aquarium’s penguins Thursday, January 9!

CHICAGO – Come to the Pier this week to experience the final days of Winter WonderFest at Navy Pier presented by Bank of America! Stay warm inside 170,000 square feet of fun including rides, attractions and entertainment.

Also, enjoy a special visit from Shedd Aquarium’s beloved Magellanic Penguins Tomorrow, Thursday, January 9 from 11 a.m. – 1 p.m.! The penguins will be available for the public to see up-close while trainers answer questions from guests about the animals, their habitats and more. Shedd Aquarium is also bringing its interactive Polar Play Zone booth that will include giveaways, a bean bag toss game, crafts and a chance to enter to win tickets to Shedd!

Winter WonderFest features new rides and attractions this year including the Ice Line Zipline Express, which allows visitors to fly through Winter WonderAir, oversized, spinning Hot Cocoa Cups, and the Arctic Plunge, an inflatable dual-lane slide. Returning this year is the Chicago Blackhawks Ice Skating Rink that will provide thrills to all levels of skaters. Other Winter WonderFest favorites returning include the Kringle Carousel, indoor Ferris wheel, the spinning Cliff Hanger, the Snowy Summit Climbing Wall and more.
Admission to Winter WonderFest is free and activity wristbands are required to participate in rides and ice skating. Please visit www.winterwonderfest.com for hours and more information.
