Navy Pier Prepares for British Invasion as Exhibitionism – The Rolling Stones Makes Chicago Debut

The Midwest's popular lakefront destination rolls out Pier-wide festivities in honor of major exhibit, including special photo gallery, themed fireworks, cover bands, discount offers and more

CHICAGO – Navy Pier, Chicago's treasure by the lakefront, is gearing up for a British invasion as Exhibitionism – The Rolling Stones, delivered by DHL, debuts in Chicago on Saturday, April 15. Exhibitionism will run a four-month engagement through July 30, 2017, proudly brought to the U.S. by Jackson. Guests will have the unique opportunity to experience the incredible journey of the most influential rock 'n' roll band in the world through this immersive and interactive exhibit set in the Pier's Festival Hall B, showcasing more than 500 rare items spanning the band's influence on fashion, recording, film and art, culminating in a mind-blowing 3D concert finale.

To celebrate and complement the arrival of Exhibitionism, Navy Pier will activate the 50-acre non-profit cultural destination with free programming throughout the duration of the exhibit to provide guests an authentic, Pier-wide experience. The enhanced offerings are part of Navy Pier's Centennial Vision, transforming the venue into an accessible, year-round centerpiece for Chicago's diverse arts and cultural scene.

Among the many exciting additions will be All-Access with Paul Natkin, a free photo gallery featuring approximately 30 iconic images of The Rolling Stones' most intimate moments and experiences, captured by Chicago native and band photographer, Paul Natkin. Free and open to the public throughout the span of Exhibitionism, the gallery is a complementary sneak peek of the main exhibit, highlighting iconic moments of The Rolling Stones on tour. All-Access with Paul Natkin will be stationed in the lower level lobby of Festival Hall A, between Doors 9 and 10.

Navy Pier is also set to host special fireworks synchronized to The Rolling Stones song tracks on select nights, in addition to featuring The Rolling Stones cover bands at the Miller Lite Beer Garden on May 27, July 1 and July 29.

In addition to the exciting programming, various establishments on the Pier will offer special Exhibitionism-themed deals and promotions during the exhibit's run in Chicago:
